

Lone Star State Dulcimer Society

November 10, 2018

The November meeting of the LSSDS will be held on November 10th at our usual digs, First Christian Church in Irving, Texas. Karl Nuemann will be leading the MD folks. Mountain dulcimers will be practicing Glen Rose tunes, including Flop Eared Mule, Needle Case, John Ryan's Polka, and a new tune for us, March of St. Timothy (in DGD). We'll also be practicing Loggieville Two-Step. The HD folks will probably be doing some of those too. Start time is 1:00 p.m.

Meeting location for LSSDS meetings is 114 W Grauwlyer Rd, Irving, TX 75061

Farmers Branch Old-Time Dulcimer Jam:

January Jam in Perrin: Mary Ellen Robertson asked us to remind everyone about the January Jam at Mitchell RV Park in Perrin, TX. This was formerly known as Coffee Creek. It will take place January 23-27, 2019. There is quite a bit of information available regarding the festival. In fact, there is enough that there is not really room in this newsletter for all of it. But, if you are interested in finding out more about this event, please contact Eunice McLain at remclain@windstream.net

Glen Rose Workshop: Stephen Seifert would like to do another 3 day workshop before the May festival. If you would like to participate in this workshop you can contact Stephen at stephen@stephnseifert.com

Marilyn Rymer has a never-played beautiful McSpadden mountain dulcimer that she would like to find a good home with someone who can or wants to play it. She has the original sales receipt, purchased in 2001. Happy to send photos, etc. If someone is interested in it you can contact Marilyn at: mrmyer@kumc.edu or call 816-522-2254.

Glen Rose So Far: So far we have Cathy Barton and Dave Para. Also too, we have Aubrey Atwater and Elwood Donnelly. Just that alone should put goose bumps all over yer body...
